

Tourism Development Manager - Eyre Peninsula (Re-advertised)

An exciting opportunity for an innovative and proactive manager to lead the development of Eyre Peninsula as a world class tourism destination.

Regional Development Australia Eyre Peninsula (RDAEP) plays a key role in the economic future of Eyre Peninsula and is the peak regional tourism organisation, charged with driving the strategic growth of the region's visitor economy.

We are seeking a values-driven manager to deliver innovative tourism and economic development outcomes through strategic thinking, active stakeholder collaboration and project management.

Based in Port Lincoln, the successful candidate will be a dynamic networker with great influencing and presentation skills and have a strong commercial focus and well developed persuasion, leadership and negotiation skills. Sound business acumen and proven results in the corporate arena will be looked at favourably. Tertiary qualifications in tourism, communications or marketing will be highly regarded, as will an understanding of the local government and tourism sectors.

A detailed Position Description is available from our website at

<https://www.rdaep.org.au/about-us/positionsvacant/>

Further enquiries about this position should be directed to Trevor Smith on 0408 948 634.

All applications must include a current resume and address the outcomes, technical expertise and personal qualities outlined in the Position Description, and be emailed to wendy.ettridge@rdaep.org.au

Applications close at 4pm on Friday 21 May 2021.